

INTRODUCTION TO OUTCOME MAPPING: DESIGNING EFFECTIVE PROJECTS & PROGRAMMES IN AN UNCERTAIN WORLD

Date: Friday 8 April 2011

Time: 9.00am – 4.00pm

Venue: Old Board room, National Museums of Kenya

Purpose

To introduce the participants to Outcome Mapping as a useful tool for project planning and monitoring and evaluation.

Presentations and group sessions facilitated by John Mauremootoo (Regional Partnerships Officer – BioNET Secretariat, UK)

Meeting will be anchored by George Mugambi

Participants

	NAME	SECTION
1.	Geoffrey Mwachala	NMK
2.	Muo Kasina	KARI
3.	Charles Warui	Zoology
4.	Chris Odhiambo	GEF Pollinator Project
5.	Itambo Malombe	Botany
6.	Rahab Kinyanjui	Paleontology
7.	Dorothy Nyingi	Zoology
8.	Peris Kamau	Botany
9.	George Gatere	CBD
10.	Veronica Muiruri	Paleontology
11.	Caroline Lumosi	Ecological Society of Eastern Africa
12.	Catherine Lukhoba	University of Nairobi
13.	Muchane Muchai	Zoology
14.	Kinyua	KARI
15.	Lawrence Monda	NMK, IT
16.	Grace Asiko	Bee Centre; Ministry of Livestock
17.	Alex Ngari	Nature Kenya
18.	Philista Malaki	Zoology
19.	John Musina	Zoology
20.	Moses Otiende	KWS
21.	John Mauremootoo	BioNET Secretariat
22.	Bernard Agwanda	Zoology
23.	Agnes Lusweti	Botany
24.	George Mugambi	Botany
25.	Wanja Kinuthia	Zoology
26.	Emily Wabuye	Botany

INTRODUCTION TO OUTCOME MAPPING: DESIGNING EFFECTIVE PROJECTS & PROGRAMMES IN AN UNCERTAIN WORLD

AGENDA

09:00 - Welcome and introductions; workshop objectives, agenda, and process.

09:30-10:30: Planning in a complex world: the tension between conventional planning frameworks & the real world.

- Presentation and discussion facilitated by John Mauremootoo

10:30 - 11:00: Tea & Coffee

11:00–12:30: Overview of the three key concepts of Outcome Mapping: Limits to our influence; Outcomes as changes in behaviour, relationships, activities, policies and practices; and Boundary Partners.

- Presentation, group exercises and discussion facilitated by John Mauremootoo

12:30 – 13:30: Lunch

13:30 - 15:00: Overview of Outcome Mapping as a planning framework that acknowledges complexity: Vision and Mission; Boundary Partners; Outcome Challenges; Progress Markers.

- Presentation, group exercises and discussion facilitated by John Mauremootoo

15:00 – 15:30: Tea & Coffee

15:30 – 16:30: Monitoring and Evaluation under Outcome Mapping: an overview.

- Presentation, group exercises and discussion facilitated by John Mauremootoo

16:30 – 16:45: Workshop evaluation.

16:45: Close.